MEDIA STATEMENT ISSUED BY THE CRL RIGHTS COMMISSION ABOUT THE MEDIATION PROCESS BETWEEN SANCO AND ECG

Today, the CRL Rights Commission convened a meeting between SANCO and the Enlightened Christian Gathering Church (ECG) with a view to mediate between the two parties.

After extensive deliberations, the parties agreed on the following:

- Immediate cessation of all hostilities from both sides
- The CRL Commission will pursue negotiations with the Church for possible support for the bereaved families.
- A follow up press briefing to be arranged where further announcements will be made about the support process
- Allow SANCO time to consult and update its constituency
- The CRL Rights Commission reiterates its call for the full enforcement of the by laws in the country.
