

Dr Muneer Abduroaf

Dr Muneer Abduroaf was born in Cape Town in 1981. He completed his Primary School studies at Portavue Primary School in Greenhaven and his High School studies at Oaklands Senior Secondary in Lansdowne. He then completed an LLB Degree in Islamic Law at the Islamic University of Madinah in Saudi Arabia. He later completed an LLB Degree, an LLM Degree, and an LLD Degree at the University of the Western Cape in South African. His Doctoral Thesis looked at the Impact of South African Law on the Islamic Law of Succession.

Dr Muneer Abduroaf is an Arabic Sworn Translator of the High Court of South Africa, an Attorney of the High Court of South Africa, and a Marriage Officer at the Department of Home Affairs of South Africa. He is also a Law Lecturer at the University of the Western Cape, Faculty of Law, Department of Criminal Justice and Procedure. He is also one of the Imaams at Masjidur-Raof based in Highlands Estate. He is happily married to his wife, Zainab Salie Abduroaf, and has three lovely daughters. Dr Muneer Abduroaf was appointed as a Part Time CRL Rights Commissioner on 21 June 2019 for the duration of five years.