

Adv Richard Botha who grew up in Port Elizabeth and who has travelled and studied abroad acquired his LLB degree from Unisa and has a varied background as an Advocate, a businessman, a politician, a community representative and a Commissioner. As a businessman he has spent time in many different sectors of the economy including Television, Construction, Education, the Service Industry and the Insurance Industry. He was also involved in the distribution of FMCG product to help the needy. Although much of his business career has been in start-ups, he has also been involved in established companies and has served on the Board of various Companies as well as, as a CEO of a listed company. His involvement in politics and the community extends over two decades where he has served as a Councillor on the Tshwane Metro Council where he was on the Finance, Safety and Security and the Corporate Shared Services Committees, and where he has been involved in numerous community based organisations, championing their different causes. He has been a Commissioner on the CRL Commission since 2014.